Paulson SkillCheck is a comprehensive needs assessment program that measures the knowledge of your workforce. This web-based testing program is easy to take from any computer with access to the Internet. Each test taker is given a secure and confidential password. Tests are 30 to 40 questions long and the results are submitted in a thorough, confidential report that pinpoints areas of strength and weakness. With this information, training can be targeted to specific employee needs resulting in the maximum return on your training investment.
